

The DAY of the LORD

AMAZING FACTS ABOUT THE RETURN OF JESUS CHRIST!

LOOKING FOR THE BLESSED HOPE AND GLORIOUS APPEARING OF OUR GREAT GOD AND SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST (TITUS 2:13).

NOTHING IN THE HISTORY OF HUMANITY COULD COMPARE TO THE COLOSSAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST.

After all, it marks the end of the world as we know it.

The return of Jesus is the climactic conclusion of our age. It will be the culmination of all things, the definitive Y-Day experience, the final crescendo. Yet while it is the end of everything as we know it, it is also the beginning of something so radically new that our minds cannot fully grasp it now.

The Bible predicts that at the second coming, all things will come to a screaming halt, but that God's people will cross a threshold marking the entrance to eternity.
The second coming will happen in concert with the resurrection of the saved dead who, along with the saved living, will ascend to heaven—and the death of all the wicked still living on the earth. Thus, this event is so much more than just another name on an apocalyptic calendar. It's the ultimate game-changing event.

Strangely, even though the second coming of Jesus is mentioned more than 300 times in Scripture, many churches scarcely address the subject, and those that do often present it as a collection of disconnected puzzle pieces—scattered and noncanonical. Sadly, the vast majority of humanity knows little or nothing of history's main event.

Christ gave us many signs indicating how to discern the nearness of His return, yet many are missing these clear indicators.

Even many professed Christians are asleep at the wheel, living their lives as if this ultimate climactic moment will never happen. Yet Jesus emphatically promised that He will return. And just as the predictions of His first coming were precisely fulfilled, the signs of His second coming are rapidly being realized in our day. This is no time to be confused. The question we most need to face is not,

"Will He come?" Rather,
we must be asking, "What are the signs of His return?"
"How will it happen?" "Am I truly ready?"

To answer these questions is the purpose of this magazine—and it not only provides you with facts from Scripture about the second coming of Christ, but to show how you can prepare for the most important event of your life. In truth, everyone is just a heartbeat away from experiencing the second coming, for when we die, our next conscious moment will bring us face to face with the Creator, who will be surrounded by indescribable power and glory.

So let's prepare to meet our God!

The Second Coming

DEFINITION:

The ultimate hope of humanity and the culmination of the gospel will be when Jesus literally, personally, and visibly returns to the earth. It is also referred to as the second advent, the Day of the Lord, the Parousia, and the return of Christ. Prophetic fulfillments and world events indicate that it is imminent. While we do not know its exact timing, we are commanded to always watch and be ready.

EVEN THOUGH THE BIBLE ENDS WITH THE PRAYER,
"COME, LORD JESUS" (REVELATION 22:20), FEW BIBLE TEACHERS GIVE THE SECOND COMING MUCH ATTENTION TODAY.

Harbingers of Destruction

NEARLY 2,000 YEARS AGO, THE WORLD'S MOST POWERFUL EMPIRE WAS SHAKEN TO ITS CORE. ON THAT APOCALYPTIC DAY IN AD 79, ONE OF THE WORST NATURAL DISASTERS TO STRIKE THE ANCIENT WORLD FELL UPON THE ROMAN COASTAL CITY OF POMPEII. IN LESS THAN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS, THE SCANDALOUS RESORT TOWN AND ITS PEOPLE WERE WIPED FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

The people who lived in Pompeii in the shadow of the massive volcano had become accustomed to the tremors that should have been a stark warning to them of impending destruction. Seventeen years earlier, an earthquake shattered much of the city and thousands moved away during that time of heightened anxiety. But after a period of calm, the picturesque seaside town was rebuilt and refilled with lush villas that many Roman citizens enjoyed as vacation homes.

Then came the ultimate day of devastation. One bright and otherwise calm morning, Mount Vesuvius suddenly and violently erupted, a deadly cloud poured down millions of tons of pulverized burning pumice and molten rock. The overgowering heat incinerated thousands of victims instantly. Others were overwhelmed by the toxic gases that enveloped them in but ash, preserving their writhing forms beneath twenty feet of volcanic dust.

For more than 1,500 years, the ruins lay unnoticed and forgotten till workers accidentally unearthed the edges of the doomed city. Slowly, archaeologists discovered clues that revealed the rampant immorality within the city. Evidence of more vice and greed were found. Murals on the walls indicated Pompeii rivaled ancient Sodom in its practice of vice and hedonism. Victims lay frozen in time, some still clinging to precious jewels and coins, silent witnesses to what they treasured most.

The people of Pompeii had received many early warning signs of impending disaster, but they chose to ignore them and perished. In the same way, we see multiple signs of the coming apocalyptic day when Christ will return. The Bible forewarns there will be sudden destruction as a worldwide scale.

While many will fall as victims to the universal destruction, their fingers vainly gripping worldly treasures, the return of Jesus will be a glorious triumph for those who believe in His words and prepare for the event. They will lift up their eyes to Him with gladness on that day.

THE DAY OF THE LORD

When a massive tsunami was about to slam into the north-east coast of Japan in 2011, residents were given a five-minute warning to seek higher ground. Newscasters flashed bulletins of a coming mega-wave. Police officers with bullhorns shouted to curious onlookers to run for their lives. Those who heeded all the alerts were caught in the unprecedented destruction.

The Bible warns of a time coming when the earth will be overcome with disaster. This calamity will not be heralded. Every corner of the planet will be struck by the catastrophe that will shake the foundations of the globe. An early warning system can predict the exact time of this event, it will come with a sudden force that will be a surprise to virtually all. The apostle Paul wrote:

"Concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night. For when they say, 'Peace and safety!' then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape!" (1 Thessalonians 5:1-3)

Are we left completely in the dark about this future day of the Lord? Not at all. Indeed, the Bible has much to say about the second coming of Christ and the end of the world. Scripture begins with forewarnings of this coming great and dreadful day. Signs of the times are carefully provided in several key chapters in God's Word. For those who ignore the signals of coming doom, the day of the Lord will strike as a thief in the night. But for others who study and prepare their lives for the return of Jesus, it is called "the blessed hope" (Titus 2:13).

WATCH AND BE READY

The final events on earth need not be a mystery to you. The Lord will not come as a thief for those who watch and are ready.

"You, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober."

(1 Thessalonians 5:1-6)

"When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red'; and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' ... You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times!" (Matthew 16:2, 3)

These passages are not suggesting we spend sleepless nights wringing our hands while anxiously waiting for a looming tragedy to strike. Preparing for Christ's coming is not about installing an early warning system in your house to alert you of impending doom. It's about studying the signs given in the Bible to know that His coming is near.

Even more important, it's about developing a loving, obedient relationship with your Savior to prepare for this crisis. Readiness is primarily a matter of the heart.

Much like the Japanese tsunami and the destruction of Pompeii, the worldwide flood in Noah's day came with suddenness to those who were not prepared. Jesus described what happened back then as a foretaste of what will come:

"Of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be!"

(Matthew 24:36-38)

Are you watching? Are you ready? Or will you be swept away unexpectedly?

"GET OUT OF THERE NOW!"

WHAT'S REALLY IMPORTANT?

This magazine will introduce you to the subject of the second coming of Christ, providing an overview of the Bible's teachings on this subject, describing the certainty of His arrival, the signs, and the manner in which He will come back, and how to prepare for this event.

It will also challenge common misconceptions about His return. Jesus warned us there would be deceptions and false prophets to try to confuse us about His appearing. Most of all, He urgently warned you to prepare for that day and explained how to be ready to receive Him in peace.

While Aytan Osgur played with her three small children in their home on the afternoon of March 11, 2011, she heard her husband outside shout, "Get out of there now!" She quickly grabbed her kids and ran out to her husband. They left everything behind as they jumped into their car and sped away to a nearby hilltop, where they escaped the devastating tsunami. When she returned home she discovered that many of their neighbors did not heed the same warnings. They lingered and perished. Though she and her family lost all their worldly goods, she said, "I have come to realize what is important in life."

This is why angels told Lot and his family to not even look back when fleeing the destruction of Sodom. Lot's wife did not take the warning seriously; she perished as a result. And this is why Jesus soberly warned, "Remember Lot's wife" (Luke 17:32).

The same return of Jesus is not just about escaping destruction. It's more than avoiding impending catastrophe, from a volcano or flood. Christ's coming is about the end of evil, suffering, injustice, and the horrors of a broken world. The second coming will be a grand reunion filled with joy for those who are prepared. All things will be made new. Evil will be forever destroyed.

Before that day comes, you should ask yourself, "What is really important in my life?"

DAY of the LORD

DEFINITION:

An Old Testament phrase often speaking of a day when God would directly interfere in human affairs and deliver the faithful in Israel. It came to refer to the great final day when time will stand still as God subdues the nations of the earth and rescues His people at Christ's second coming.

TAKE HEED TO YOURSELVES, LEST YOUR HEARTS BE WEIGHED DOWN WITH CAROUSING, DRUNKENNESS, AND CARES OF THIS LIFE, AND THAT DAY COME ON YOU UNEXPECTEDLY.

FOR IT WILL COME AS A SNARE ON ALL THOSE WHO DWELL ON THE FACE OF THE WHOLE EARTH.

WATCH THEREFORE, AND PRAY ALWAYS THAT YOU MAY BE COUNTED WORTHY TO ESCAPE ALL THESE THINGS THAT WILL COME TO PASS, AND TO STAND BEFORE THE SON OF MAN.

The Certainty of the Second Coming

CAPTAIN SCOTT O'GRADY'S FIGHTER JET SPIRALED TOWARD THE EARTH AFTER IT WAS HIT BY A MISSILE OVER WAR-TORN BOSNIA. HE PULLED THE EJECTION LEVER OF HIS F-16 AND PARACHUTED INTO ENEMY TERRITORY, BEGINNING A FRIGHTENING ODYSSEY. FOR SIX DAYS HE SURVIVED BY EATING BUGS AND DRINKING RAINWATER. HE AVOIDED CAPTURE BY HIDING UNDER BUSHES AND COVERING HIS FACE WITH MUD TO MAKE HIMSELF LESS VISIBLE. SOMETIMES ENEMY SOLDIERS SEARCHING FOR HIM PASSED WITHIN ONLY A FEW FEET OF HIS HIDING PLACE.

O'Grady wondered, Do they know I'm alive? Do they care? Are they going to come for me? What he didn't know was that from the moment his ordeal began, the U.S. military was mobilizing a massive, multi-million dollar effort for his rescue. At one point, his country had forty airplanes in the air searching just for him. Still O'Grady kept wondering, Will they come for me?

Captain O'Grady was eventually recovered in a daring rescue using several branches of the military—all to save just one soldier stranded behind enemy lines.

We are likewise stranded in enemy territory, and some are wondering whether God has forgotten us. Absolutely not! Christ has not forgotten His people. He promised, "He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other" (Matthew 24:31).

God is making preparations even now to rescue all of His children. He's coming back . . . and want! But how can we be so certain?

In a sweeping, comprehensive review of world history, a prophecy found in the Bible book of Daniel, chapter two, revealed the rise and fall of nations in advance—all culminating with the second coming. More than 2,600 years ago, an ancient Babylonian king who had conquered the nation of Israel had a mysterious, confusing dream. When his wise men and astrologers couldn't decipher his nighttime vision, a Hebrew captive stepped forward and, through God's help, unraveled the king's dream, which provided a stunning overview of time down to the end of the world.

King Nebuchadnezzar listened in awe as the Jewish hostage, named Daniel, unfolded the dream of a multi-mineral statue of a man. The young prophet was given insight by God to explain the meaning of the vision.

"You, O king, were watching and beholding a great image! This great image, whose splendor was excellent, stood before you, and its form was awesome. This image's head was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay" (Daniel 2:33-35).

Daniel then revealed that the head of gold on the statue represented Babylon, which reigned from 605 BC to 539 BC. History next confirms that the chest and arms of silver symbolized the Medo-Persian Empire, which overran Babylon and reigned from 539 BC to 331 BC. The belly and thighs of bronze stood for Greece. Alexander the Great conquered the Persians, paving the way for Greek rule from 336 BC to 146 BC. Next, the legs of iron symbolized the Roman supremacy (of Rome, which conquered the Greeks in 146 BC and dominated the world until AD 476).

When the Roman Empire began to crumble, it was not overtaken by another world power. Rather, the statue's feet of iron mixed with clay represented the successive hordes of Germanic invaders who divided the territory into what is now modern-day Europe. Though many rulers have tried to unite Europe, including Charlemagne, Napoleon, and even Adolf Hitler, none has been successful.

How did Nebuchadnezzar's dream end?

"You watched while a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; the wind carried them away, and no trace of them was found. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth" (Daniel 2:34, 35, emphasis added).

Who is the stone "cut out without hands" that demolished the image with enormous force?

It is Jesus Christ, the "Rock of Ages" (Isaiah 26:4, margin). All of history moves toward the spectacular finale when the Son of God returns to the earth with power. History textbooks confirm that we are living in the toes of this grand, symbolic figure. Kingdoms have risen and fallen just as God predicted through Daniel.

The last scene in Nebuchadnezzar's dream is the coming of God's kingdom. Biblical prophecy has proven itself trustworthy, so we can know with certainty that we are living in the end times. Jesus will soon return!

THE BIBLE ACCURATELY RECORDED HISTORY IN ADVANCE SINCE THE TIME OF BABYLON—PROPHETICALLY ANTICIPATED BY ANY HISTORY BOOK. WE CAN TRUST IT WILL ALSO BE RIGHT ABOUT THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS!

Daniel

"I WILL COME AGAIN."

Not only do fulfilled prophecies reinforce the certainty of the second coming, but Jesus Himself made repeated statements about His return. These are no mere hints. The straightforward words spoken to His disciples remove all doubt.

"Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions. If I were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also." (John 14:1-3)

With stunning precision, Jesus also foretold the signs of His coming, the exact manner of His return, and what happens just before the end of the age. Large sections of the Gospels portray the final events of earth's history that culminate in the second advent. Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 17 and 21 outline the signs of the times. Jesus also told many parables to encourage people to watch and be ready for His return, such as the parable of the faithful and evil servants, the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, the parable of the talents, and the parable of the sheep and goats.

Even as Jesus ascended to heaven, angels appeared and assured His disciples, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven" (Acts 1:11).

THE FIRST COMING GUARANTEES THE SECOND COMING

Jesus' first advent to earth, to Bethlehem more than 2,000 years ago, is closely connected to His second advent. The Messiah didn't leave heaven and come to earth just to impress a group of shepherds. Christ's purpose was to conquer sin and death. "Having destroyed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in It" (Colossians

The Lord has not left our world to spin into oblivion. Heaven is deeply committed to ending the great battle between good and evil and to restoring Eden on earth. Jesus will return to end all suffering, offer true justice, and crush the serpent who has ravaged

WHAT ARE THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES?

It is generally believed that the time is fast approaching when the signs of the times will be manifest to all eyes and ears.

The signs of the times given us in the Bible are of a general character. They are of a Divine origin and are not given to any particular people, nation, or age.

There are earthquakes, famines, pestilences, and wars. We have seen these things in the past and they are still going on. They are the signs of the times.

WARS AND RUMORS OF WARS

There is no war at the time of the end, but there is a time when there will be a war. It is a war of the nations. It is a war of the nations against the nations.

The September 11, 2001, attacks on the United States government and the World Trade Center were the beginning of the end. They were the signs of the times.

The 9/11 attacks were the beginning of the end. They were the signs of the times.

There is no war at the time of the end, but there is a time when there will be a war. It is a war of the nations. It is a war of the nations against the nations.

The Bible says that there will be a time when there will be a war. It is a war of the nations. It is a war of the nations against the nations.

There is no war at the time of the end, but there is a time when there will be a war. It is a war of the nations. It is a war of the nations against the nations.

These earthquakes are moderate in frequency and intensity, but the damage to the island was severe. So, even the damage from a single quake can be enough to impact the island's economy, which is the main source of income, by a subsequent reduction in the number of visitors to the island.

MORAL COLLAPSE

When Jesus told the disciples that men would be killing the Son of Man, they were shocked. They asked, "How can this be with the coming of the Son of Man?" (Matthew 24:29)

What was the cause of this? The answer is found in the Bible, up in 7th-century AD. The Bible says the world was in a state of moral collapse. The apostles had been told that the Son of Man would come in the clouds of heaven, and that the world would be in a state of moral collapse. The world was in a state of moral collapse, and the apostles were told that the Son of Man would come in the clouds of heaven, and that the world would be in a state of moral collapse.

And the world was in a state of moral collapse. The world was in a state of moral collapse, and the apostles were told that the Son of Man would come in the clouds of heaven, and that the world would be in a state of moral collapse. Global wars and upheavals (Matthew 24:6, 14)

Christ's followers being persecuted and killed (Matthew 24:9)

Amazing darkness, causing the loss of many lives (Matthew 24:29)

Worldwide peace (Matthew 24:30)

The gospel preached to all the world (Matthew 24:14)

Signs of the end (Matthew 24:29)

The sun and moon darkened and stars falling (Matthew 24:29)

IT DOESN'T TAKE MUCH IMAGINATION TO SEE THAT THE SIGNS OF THE END ARE BEING RAPIDLY FULFILLED. WE CAN KNOW THAT GOD IS READY SOON TO ACT UPON THE WORLD STAGE TO SAVE THOSE WHOM HE HAS CREATED, LOVES, AND SENT HIS SON TO REDEEM.

DOOMSDAY SCIENCE

Scientific discovery, technological power, and a touch of sci-fi creativity have led some to predict life on our planet could end soon. While we don't endorse these views, it shows that much of the world—even hardcore atheists—believe we could be living in the end of days. Some of the more common theories of doomsday include:

1. Asteroids and comets. The threat of a large asteroid or comet hitting Earth has long been a popular doomsday theory. In 1998, a 199-foot-wide asteroid named Asteroid 1998 BT passed within 2.9 million miles of Earth. Scientists estimated that the odds of it hitting the planet were 1 in 175,000.

2. Climate change. Some scientists believe that global warming could lead to a "doomsday" scenario. In 2009, a study published in the journal Nature suggested that a massive release of methane gas from the ocean floor could lead to a global warming event that would wipe out all life on Earth.

3. Nuclear war. The threat of nuclear war has long been a popular doomsday theory. In 2007, a study published in the journal Nature suggested that a nuclear war between India and Pakistan could lead to a global warming event that would wipe out all life on Earth.

4. Volcanic eruptions. The threat of a massive volcanic eruption has long been a popular doomsday theory. In 2006, a study published in the journal Nature suggested that a massive eruption of Mount Toba could lead to a global warming event that would wipe out all life on Earth.

5. Supervolcanoes. The threat of a supervolcano erupting has long been a popular doomsday theory. In 2006, a study published in the journal Nature suggested that a supervolcano eruption could lead to a global warming event that would wipe out all life on Earth.

It seems strange to ask if a person's lack of ability to experience the condition or a way to the goal is due to the fact that he cannot be taught and perhaps to think a state and if the person it is a gift of the Holy Spirit. He will give it to whom he will. But you must seek it earnestly. And when you ask, you must believe, and you must not doubt, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. Such a person must expect that he will receive nothing from the Father. The Lord will give him what he desires abundantly and overflowingly." (Eph. 1:3-5)

The apostle Paul had already explained that the Holy Spirit would be poured out on all who would call on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. He now describes how to receive the Spirit. Some of these commands are repeated in the New Testament. Some have been rendered the opposite of what Paul intended. The apostle Paul was not speaking of a list of requirements that must be met.

What Happens When Christ Returns

ON MARCH 11, 2011, AT 2:46 PM, A REGION-BREAKING EARTHQUAKE RUPTURED ALONG A 310-MILE FAULT ZONE OFF THE NORTHEAST COAST OF JAPAN. THE UNDERSEA MEGATHRUST LOCATED ABOUT 100 MILES OFF THE KURIL ISLANDS CAUSED A DEADLY TSUNAMI THAT REACHED UP TO 150 FEET HIGH IN SOME PLACES, WIPING OUT TOWNS AND VILLAGES AND WASHING AWAY CARS AND BUILDINGS AS IF THEY WERE LITTLE TOYS.

It was the most powerful earthquake ever recorded by an offshore ocean-bottom pressure gauge. For just one minute, the earth's crust slipped and shifted, pulling together a thousand miles square of the bottom of the ocean.

The megathrust's initial approach was a run from the northeast, heading for the coast of Honshu Island, Japan's main island. It was a surprise, for the quake was felt all the way to the west coast of the island. For one place was felled after a few days—the western reaches of the island, where up to 100,000 people were killed. A large group of people, up to 100,000, were killed or injured, and many were left with serious injuries.

Resurrection of the Dead

DEFINITION:

The restoration of life and body, including personality, subsequent to death. Christians look forward to this hope of the dawn of eternal life that occurs at the second coming. There will be a second resurrection—of the wicked—at the end of the millennium at the final judgment. (See Revelation 20:4, 12, 13.)

VIEWS OF THE MILLENNIUM

THE MILLENNIUM, OR THE THOUSAND YEARS' REIGN OF CHRIST AND HIS SAINTS, IS A PERIOD OF TIME DURING WHICH THE DEAD SHALL BE RAISED, AND THE LIVING SHALL BE TRANSFORMED, AND THE WORLD SHALL BE REDEEMED. IT IS A PERIOD OF TIME DURING WHICH THE SAINTS SHALL REIGN WITH CHRIST, AND THE WICKED SHALL BE PUNISHED. IT IS A PERIOD OF TIME DURING WHICH THE KINGDOM OF GOD SHALL BE ESTABLISHED ON EARTH, AND THE PEACE AND HAPPINESS OF MANKIND SHALL BE PERFECTED.

Preparing for the Return of Jesus

AS PEOPLE LIVING IN THESE TROUBLED TIMES CONSIDER THE mounting problems facing civilization and the growing fear they will encounter a major disaster at some point in their lives, a whole new culture has emerged among them.

The unknown by many titles—doomsday, prepping, survivalism, and more—about natural disasters, social war, and a return to a drastically different world, this movement has become a preoccupation of many. Survivalists are preparing for a world of catastrophic disasters and are preparing for them in different ways. Some think to make any catastrophe into an opportunity to build a better, more functional world, while others are getting ready for a bleak, lifeless, and unlivable planet.

Survivalists believe that the world will be destroyed by nuclear war, biological warfare, which involves a deadly virus, or a natural disaster, and need to live quickly. Others are preparing for a world where the human race will be hunted down and killed by a few evil, intelligent, and powerful beings.

Be informed—the more information you have, the better you will be able to deal with any possible disaster or emergency.

For all these reasons, a good preparation program like "Doomsday Preppers" is the best way to get ahead in a world of uncertainty.

After the Bible, we go to some of our most important scriptures of the last days. This group will be available when it is appropriate.

Should we start by having a few months, which is more important than the rest of the Bible? The answer is yes, but it is not the only answer. It is the only answer that is safe, but it is not the only answer. It is the only answer that is safe, but it is not the only answer.

On the other hand, very many of our scriptures with which we are familiar are not in the Bible. They are in the Bible, but they are not in the Bible. They are in the Bible, but they are not in the Bible. They are in the Bible, but they are not in the Bible.

There is a book, The Book of the Dead, which is a book of the dead. It is a book of the dead, and it is a book of the dead. It is a book of the dead, and it is a book of the dead. It is a book of the dead, and it is a book of the dead.

PROVISIONS FOR THE END TIME

The provisions for the end time are the provisions for the end time. They are the provisions for the end time, and they are the provisions for the end time.

There is a book, The Book of the Dead, which is a book of the dead. It is a book of the dead, and it is a book of the dead. It is a book of the dead, and it is a book of the dead. It is a book of the dead, and it is a book of the dead.

DICTIONARY

OF END-TIME TERMINOLOGY

Abomination of Desolation — A substance or system of worship that is displeasing to God because it stands in opposition to truth. The phrase is found in the King James Version of Matthew 24:15 and in various forms in the book of Daniel. It literally means "a detestable thing that appalls."

Apostasy — A willful turning away from God referred to many times in the Bible with terms such as rebellion, falling away, and idolatry. The term "Great Apostasy" has been used to describe Papal Rome's rise to power and bringing pagan ideas and practices into the church.

Armageddon — Appears once in Scripture (Revelation 16:16) and literally means "mountain of Megiddo," a location of many battles in Israel's history. Some believe this is a final battle between two earthly end-time forces, but it actually symbolizes the final conflict between Christ and Satan.

Dispensationalism — A "historic" method of interpreting the Bible. It holds that God has yet to fulfill His promises to the literal nation of Israel and that most of the book of Revelation is future.

Four Horsemen — Revelation 6 describes four horses of different colors that describe events on earth after the death of Jesus and before His second coming.

Futurism — An interpretation of Revelation as applying in a literal sense to future events on a global scale (as opposed to symbolic or historic ways). Such beliefs are connected to premillennialism and dispensationalism and are the basis of the "secret rapture" theory, as seen in the Left Behind series.

Secret Rapture — A popular but questionable belief that Jesus will return secretly before the tribulation to snatch up or rapture His church while leaving the unsaved on earth to suffer through the plagues.

Historicism — A method of interpreting the Bible with historical events and people. It holds to a continuous fulfillment of prophecy and was the view of the major Protestant reformers such as Martin Luther and John Calvin.

Idealism — Also known as the "spiritual" or "allegorical" approach to interpreting Bible prophecy, in which all imagery is viewed as symbols and not literal events.

Marriage Supper of the Lamb — An event spoken of in Revelation 19:6-9 that unites Christ and His church after His second coming. It harkens back to a parable of Jesus in Matthew 22:1-14. Four times the book of Revelation speaks of the church as the bride of Christ.

New Earth — Spoken of twice in the New Testament, it refers to the earth being recreated at the end of the millennium after it is cleansed by fire from heaven. Its capital city will be the New Jerusalem. See Revelation 21:1-4.

New Jerusalem — The name of the city in heaven being prepared by Christ for His people (Reb 21:2-3). It will come to the earth as the new capital at the end of the millennium (Revelation 21:1, 2).

Pastorism — The view that most prophecies of the Bible have already happened. Events spoken of in the book of Revelation are interpreted as having happened in the first century.

Typo — A biblical person, thing, or event that foreshadows a greater person, thing, or event. A spotless lamb brought to the sanctuary in the Old Testament was a type of Christ that foreshadowed His sacrifice.
